

October 21 Recap... Volunteer Rally Success!

The 2013 Scotties had a busy, successful weekend! It was great to see all of our volunteers on Sunday at our very first Volunteer Rally. Over 300 volunteers were through the doors on Sunday getting photos taken and sized in preparation for the Scotties.

Kingston is behind this great event, and it sure shows! Thank you for your support.

We are looking forward to seeing everyone at the next Volunteer Rally, which will be held Sunday, January 13 at the Four Points by Sheraton Kingston.

New Draw Schedule Means Three More Beauty Sleeps!

Not that curling fans need it... but a new draw schedule for the 2013 Scotties Tournament of Hearts sees the removal of the traditional morning draws on the Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday.

As a result, the curling world gets to sleep in on those mornings and everyone who has a ticket for championships weekend is in for non-stop excitement. Reason being, that the three displaced draws reappear on Friday in the form of the final 3 round robin matches.

Page playoffs will both take place on Saturday, with the semi-final on Sunday morning... followed by the bronze medal game in the afternoon and the championships final at night.
